Car Wash for Homelessness benefits St. Luke's LifeWorks

July 12th was a beautiful sunny Sunday for volunteers from Outward Bound who washed cars at the Car Wash for Homelessness to raise awareness about the mission of St. Luke's LifeWorks, which is to provide education and housing for people facing homelessness. Two car washes were held on the same date at the Darien Depot and Old Greenwich Elementary School. There was no charge to get your car washed, but donations were encouraged to support the organization's programs for homelessness. Both Home Depot and Siperstein's Paint and Decorating in Norwalk donated supplies for the event. LifeWorks hopes to hold more such successful volunteer driven events. To learn how you can help, contact Elaine Osowski, Director of Voluntary Services at Elaine@stlukeslifeworks.org.

About St. Luke's LifeWorks

St. Luke's LifeWorks is based in Stamford and has 10 locations in Fairfield County. Programs include educational opportunities, coaching and mentoring, and housing for individuals facing homelessness, recovering from mental illness, or living with HIV/AIDS. St. Luke's LifeWorks focuses on providing permanent solutions that enable program participants to achieve greater self-sufficiency. For more information visit www.learnaliving.org.

About Outward Bound

The Mission of Outward Bound is to inspire character development and self-discovery in people of all ages and walks of life through challenge and adventure, and to impel them to achieve more than they ever thought possible, to show compassion for others and to actively engage in creating a better world.
